

11th Australian Cliometrics Workshop

Call for Papers

The 11th Australasian Cliometrics Workshop will be held on Thursday 19 September 2024, at the University of New South Wales, Sydney. AusClio follows the established Clio format of short presentations, discussant comments and substantial discussion by the audience. Accepted papers will be distributed in advance to participants with the expectation of an engaged contribution.

There is no workshop theme, submissions to all topics in Economic History are welcomed. The workshop is hosted by the School of Economics at UNSW and supported by the Economic History Society of Australia and New Zealand.

Extended abstracts or full papers will be accepted now through 1 August 2024. Notifications will be made shortly afterwards, and full papers will be due by 4th September (two weeks before the workshop). To submit an abstract or paper as well as to RSVP to attend (including willingness to serve as a discussant), please send an email to Pauline Grosjean, p.grosjean@unsw.edu.au, ccing Camille Remigereau, c.remigereau@unsw.edu.au. Early career scholars and graduate students are particularly encouraged to apply.

If you need an earlier decision for travel, visa, or funding reasons, please contact p.grosjean@unsw.edu.au.

Registration is free and lunch and coffee will be provided. All other costs will need to be self-funded, such as travel and accommodation. An informal dinner or get-together on Thursday evening will be organized.

Thanks, and we look forward to seeing you in Sydney.
